AUCTION BULLETIN.

Many a well-made second-hand piece of furniture is more serviceable than a new article, and some of the older pieces have never yet been equalled for beauty or utility. We shall sell an old English breakfast table, in dark birch, that is especially well made, and we have a Galvanometer that cost a lot of money that will be sold.

We never know what minute something really good will turn up.
There is nothing like looking around the day before the sale. Goods at auction are always bargains. Jas. F.
Bailey, Manager. 6464-tf
